Johnson's voice is ragged and weak compared to the old days, although I think Brian sounds better in general today.. AC/DC – No Bull: The Director's Cut (originally 1996, DVD 2008 Sony) The Plaza de Toro in Madrid is an incredible looking venue.

“Nice place you got here!” understates Brian Johnson To film a concert video here seems an easy decision.. Then AC/DC knock 'em down (down down) easily on “Shoot to Thrill” There is a rock and roll purity to this show: A bunch of guys in jeans (Angus excepted), playing hard rock and roll, but contrasted with that is the massive stage.

Having Phil back for that period of the band was a coup It's back to the Bon Scott years then, with “Shot Down in Flames”.. A pre-crystal meth Phil Rudd dons spectacles, and hammers out the beat that, truthfully, he invented and does best.. It's an interesting evolution Contrast this with any live video of the current lineup playing the song with Slade today.. He plays “Thunderstruck” his own way, which is fine There's a live version, with Slade, on AC/DC Live.. The crowd goes nuts when Angus himself speaks The stage is huge, but Brian Johnson runs across every inch, interacting with the massive crowd as a veteran frontman can. Mac Os X 10.7.2 Download

Colourful lights illuminate the stage, but only Brian and Angus are really mobile.. With Phil on the kit, “Thunderstruck” is no longer filled with nervous energy, but is more in the pocket.. The album will Then, “Thunderstruck” is an interesting take, because Phil didn’t play this song before.. All but instantly, it sounds like a familiar classic This is high quality rock, with Johnson’s voice in full shred.. “Girls Got Rhythm” is an easy classic, which warms the crowd up with a newbie: “Hard as a Rock” *, the single from Ballbreaker.. A crane and giant wrecking ball dominate the scene The ball swings and bowls over the backdrop! Enter: Angus Young! “Back in Black” * is a natural opener: Everybody knows it, and the groove is impossible to ignore. 773a7aa168 youtube to mp3 converter using mobile download free for windows 7 home edition 32
